THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

COUNT I

That beginning in approximately December 2013, and continuing until approximately June 2019, at Whitefish, in Flathead County, in the State and District of Montana, and elsewhere, including the Northern District of California, the defendant, BRYAN GREGG WATERFIELD NASH, with the intent to harass and intimidate John and Jane Does 1-33 (full names withheld to protect privacy), used an interactive computer service, electronic communication service, electronic communication system of interstate commerce, and other facilities of interstate and foreign commerce, namely a computer, cellular telephone, e-mail and the internet, to engage in a course of conduct that caused, attempted to cause, and would be reasonably expected to cause, substantial emotional distress to John and Jane Does 1-33, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2261A(2)(B).

COUNT II

That beginning in approximately December 2013, and continuing until approximately June 2019, at Whitefish, in Flathead County, in the State and District of Montana, and elsewhere, including the Northern District of California, the defendant, BRYAN GREGG WATERFIELD NASH, with the intent to extort money and things of value from John Does 1 and 2, knowingly transmitted in interstate commerce electronic messages that contained a true threat to injure the reputations of John Does 1 and 2, that is, the defendant threatened to release information to law enforcement and the media regarding alleged behavior and violations of the laws of the United States by John Does 1 and 2 if John Does 1 and 2 refused to pay the defendant substantial sums of money, in violation of
